

Newcastle

Participatory budgeting
Part of the bigger picture

To see the whole we need to forget about the parts!

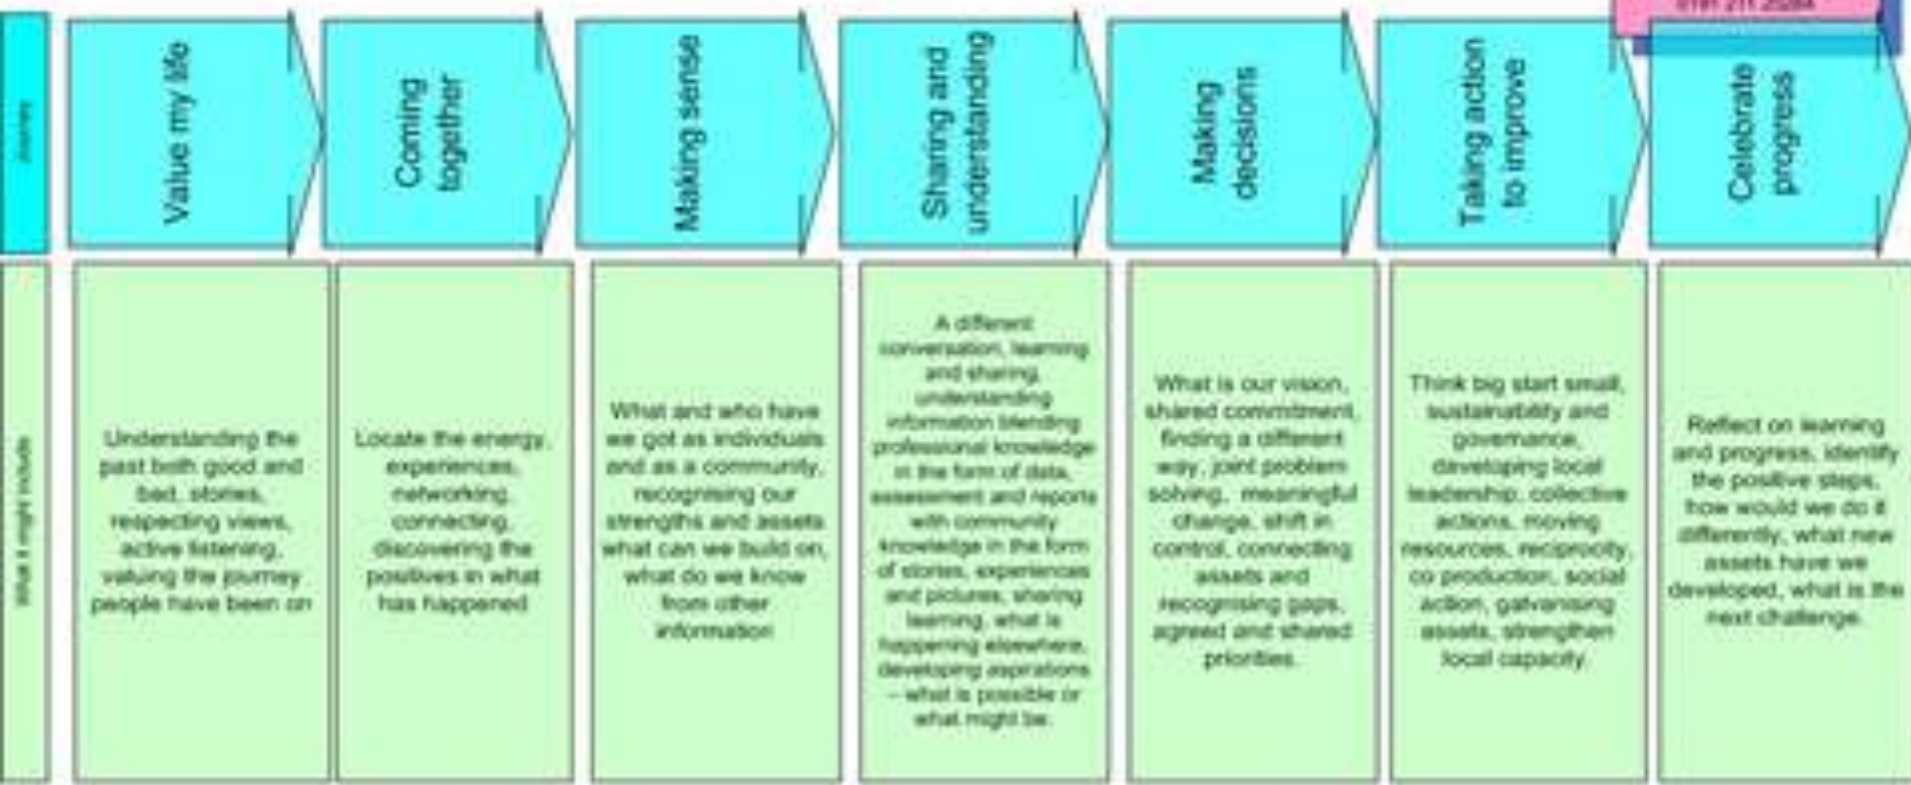

KEITH HARING

KEITH HARING by URSUS WEHRL

Understanding (not prescribing!) the journey: unlocking, recognising and galvanising the capacity from within

This is thinking in progress - it is for review, comment and to spark conversations. Comments to Karen Inglis, Wellbeing for Life team, Newcastle City Council 0191 211 2084

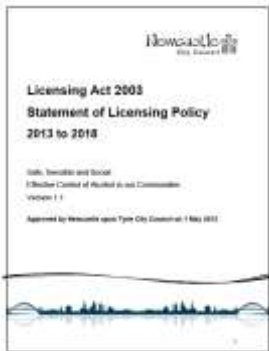

Two examples

Choices and chances

Objectives: to breakdown silos and think more broadly about how council functions can be used to enable better public health and wellbeing.

Objectives: to involve local communities in identifying solutions.

Greening Wingrove

Bright Ideas

Objective: To develop local capacity to make decisions on how community resources should be used and to take community action.

Without context, a piece of information is just a dot. It floats in your brain with a lot of other dots and doesn't mean a damn thing. Knowledge is information-in-context ... connecting the dots.

- Michael Ventura